Delaware Water Gap National Recreational Area

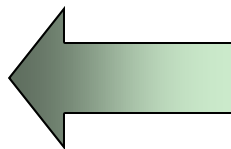

The Park

This park preserves 40 miles of the middle Delaware River and almost 70,000 acres of land along the river's New Jersey and Pennsylvania shores. At the south end of the park, the river cuts eastward through the Appalachian Mountains at the scenic Delaware Water Gap.

A one-day auto tour of the park can include waterfalls, rural scenery, and historic Millbrook Village. Visitors can also canoe, hike, camp, swim, picnic, bicycle, and horseback ride. Fishing and hunting are permitted in season with state licenses.

Organized Weekend Activities will include:

- Friday 8:30 –10:00 pm Campfire Meet and Greet
- Saturday Afternoon Tubing trip down Delaware River [Fee extra]
- Saturday 6:00 pm Kids Activities and Arts and Crafts
- Saturday 7:00 pm Jersey Devil Pot Luck Dinner at the Campsite
- Sunday morning Group Hike [TBD]
